

Task for user (a. Dad b. Mom)

1. Search for a stock
 - a. User clicks on search bar, types in stock ticker smr
 - b. User clicks on the search bar, types in tesla
2. Add to watchlist
 - a. User navigates to first result, clicks the add to watchlist button
 - b. User navigates to first result, clicks the add to watchlist button
3. Remove from watchlist
 - a. User navigates to the my watchlist section of the page. Clicks on the red remove button beside the stock they want to remove.
 - b. User navigates to the my watchlist section of the page. Clicks on the red remove button beside the stock they want to remove.
4. View the Stock chart
 - a. User goes to search bar and clears the search bar. User then navigates to watchlist and clicks on the first stock. This then takes them to the stock chart page.
 - b. User goes to the search results from tesla. User clicks on the tesla text to view the stock chart.
5. See more articles
 - a. User scrolls down the page, finds the see more news button. User clicks the see more news button.
 - b. User scrolls down the page, finds the see more news button. User clicks the see more news button.
6. Go to the company website
 - a. The user scrolls up to the company info section. Then the user clicks on the url to the company's website.
 - b. The user scrolls up to the company info section. Then the user clicks on the url to the company's website.
7. Go to the third news article linked
 - a. User goes back to the chart page. User scrolls down the page to the third news article. User then clicks on the heading for the third news article.
 - b. User goes back to the chart page. User scrolls down the page to the third news article. User then clicks on the heading for the third news article.

Issues found

1. Hard to understand how to get to the chart for the stock
 - a. Add tool tip to stock in search list
 - b. Add button to watchlist that says "view chart"
2. News is not sorted by date
 - a. Sort the news by date
3. Not easy to get back to the stock watchlist page
 - a. Button to go back to watchlist from the chart page